

MAKING
HEIRLOOM
BOXES

PETER LLOYD

GALLERY

My friends, my colleagues, my partners in boxmaking. These are some of the makers out there all over the world beavering away in their workshops, often on their own, producing fantastic work. Their work has inspired me, I've learnt from them; in some cases their boxes have made me smile, in others they have left me open-mouthed in admiration.

Clare Vetterlein, UK. Ripple sycamore and purple heart

Ross Kaires, Australia. 'Hall of Elders'. Pinus sp., Eucalyptus sp., and bamboo grass

Hilary Arnold Baker, UK. Wooden box. Pine, lacquered gesso with gessoed muslin binding and patinated silver leaf

Jean-Christophe Couradin, France. Rosewood (Palissandre de Madagascar)

Kim Kelzer, USA, 'Windy'. Painted basswood

Charles B. Cobb, USA. Teapot box. African zebrawood, walnut

